

Considerations for County Attorneys

- In-house counsel may be more likely to have relevant evidence
- Availability of insurance counsel may mitigate
- Frequency of insurance counsel may favor disqualification – less likely to be seen as detriment to client
- Consider application of rule in quasi-judicial proceedings where attorneys may present mixture of arguments on law and evidence

What's Your Experience?

- ? Have you ever testified as a witness?
- ? How was it different from serving as a lawyer?
- ? Any advice on prepping to be a witness?

GOOD LUCK!
