Associate Membership Program

North Carolina Association of County Commissioners

NCACC Associate Membership Program

Overview of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners

Founded in 1908, the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners is one of the most successful and active statewide local government associations in the nation. The NCACC was established for the betterment of county government in North Carolina. All 100 counties – and not individual county officials – are members of the Association. It is this strength in unity that makes the Association so effective. The NCACC is the only organization that represents all 100 county governments in North Carolina.

Why should I become an Associate Member of the North Carolina Association of County Commissioners?

An Associate Membership with the NCACC puts you in touch with the key decision-makers – commissioners, managers, finance and budget officers, purchasing officers, personnel directors, IT directors and attorneys. The Association believes that helping nurture a strong relationship with the private sector will prove beneficial to all North Carolinians in the long run. As the demands on county government become more complex, county leaders are always seeking new, cost-effective ways to provide these services to their citizens. The NCACC's Associate Membership Program will give your organization exposure and access to county officials.

Does your company do business with North Carolina counties? Are you looking to expand those opportunities?

Associate members will enjoy unique access to North Carolina's county leaders, with access to select NCACC meetings. Associate members will receive priority on booth space at the exhibit show and will be notified of sponsorship opportunities at annual conference and other NCACC meetings before non-members.

In addition, Associate Members will be listed yearly in CountyLines, the monthly NCACC publication that is mailed to all commissioners, managers and department heads, in the NCACC Annual Directory, in the Annual Conference program and on the NCACC Website. The Website listing will include a link to your corporate Website.

What do I receive for my membership?

All Associate members will receive a free copy of the Annual Directory and the chance to purchase additional copies at a discounted rate, a free subscription to CountyLines, free mailing lists of county officials, a free e-mail subscription to the Legislative Bulletin (produced weekly while the General Assembly is in session), a discount on advertising in CountyLines, the chance to register for Annual Conference and meetings at the County rate and more.

Please note that the Associate Membership Program is not to be construed as an endorsement by the NCACC.

How do I apply for membership?

Fill out the enclosed membership application and submit it, along with the $750 annual application fee, to the Association at the address on the form. Membership is good for twelve months from the time the application is approved and must be renewed each year.
